INNOVATIVE ENGINEERING E-NEWS BYTE:

INNOVATIVE Named Among New Jersey's Top Environmental Firms

TOMS RIVER, NJ – In their April 17, 2006 issue, NJ Biz newspaper (<http://www.njbiz.com>), named Innovative Engineering among the State's top 50 environmental firms. Coming in at number 23, Innovative employs 120 professionals at their Toms River, NJ headquarters. The staff is under the direction of Louis A. Scheidt, P.E., P.P. President, who has more than 30 years experience in planning, administration, community service, construction and the application of the engineering profession.

A multi-disciplined firm, Innovative can also list itself among the top 20 telecom engineering firms and the top 500 design firms in the USA, that according to a report released April 24, 2006 by Engineering News Record. Though not on the list because it is privately held, Innovative's size and sheer volume of work makes the firm eligible.
